Nothing can be more gratify ing than the henor of having succeeded in gaining the approbation and good will of the people of one the most important constituen cies in the country, I have great pleasure in accepting the nomination alluded to in your requisition. The next Legislative Assembly will probably be the most important that haever met in this colony, and it behoves al good men to be vigilant, and to exert them

It may be found well in practice to remember that the misrepresentations of those designing men, who so loadly asserted that signing men, who so loadly asserted that you were not qualified to exercise political functions with advantage to yourselves or to the country, have been signally refuted, and that to elve years of misgovernment proves most conclusively, that they were not competent to hold, or exercise, the office of governors with advantage or safety to the community. Experience shows that it were vain to expect political improvement from many official career is not to be found materia progress, when not identified with their personal profit or advancement. I confess that when speculating on the causes which led to the disastrous retrogression of the past, I am of a political system, to which is traceable so much unmixed evil—a system containing within itself such active elements of ruin, which when considered in the abstract, might have been expected to put an end to its existence much sooner. Nor indeed is this all. It will be the duty of future legislators, in their post morion examination of the late government to fearlessly probe the complicat-d disorders which paved a way for its final It is not probable that any modern English ommunity has suffered politics ills so call-nity as the recipie of British Columbia. The mount of maladministration, and the extraamount of maladministration, and the extraordinary nature of official aggrandizement is perfectly as a unding. Amore a brib e collect tion of despotic follies can haruly be imagined.

We have seen public servants voting their own malaries, fixing their own pensions, defying public opinion, and pursuing with studied malevolence, the popular representatives. We have seen mere adventurer, nature of these events, is pregnant with reflecting mind numerous and important lessons. The time appears appropriate for turning such lessons to account by improvements at once expedient, practical, and decisive; but they realize only half the danger which these events indicate, who see in them only official usurpation on the one hand, and determined opposition on the other. The lesson which these events teach us is, that gross legislation and extreme agitation are inseperably connected—that each is the blood relation of the other. Nay more, the danger indicated is to be apprehended by placing great powers in the bands of our governors without being secured by immediate not remote, certain not dubious constitutional laws that those power shall not

It will hardly be disputed by men of candonr and experience that there are certain requisites indispensably necessary to the security and efficiency of all just governments the most important of which I believe to be, freedom and security against wrong. Now I think you will readily admit that most civilized governments have succeeded pretty well in securing the people against wrong from each other; but to secure them by laws against wrong from the government itself, i a problem of a far more difficult aort, which few nations since the commencement of governments have attempted to solve. But it is a problem upon the solution of which depends the freedom and security of every existing nation against oppression and peculation, and which from its importance commends itself to the anxious and impartial consideration of all men who are desirous of rendering permanent That it is not the business of those who govern to compel public opinion to follow them. but that it is their duty to follow public opinion, is a canon of my political creed. Unfortunately the practice of those who have governed this colony, has been, both by precept and example to think differently, but the day is not far distant when the predictions of the advocates of justice and of reason shall be verified,-when the u. just and barbarous laws which disfranchised so many intelligent and worthy citizens shall exist only as evidence of the bigotry, and sordid ignorance of those from whom they emanated,—when the promising future proclaims the results of Confederation, the promotion of aits and science, the diffusion of useful truth, of education, of civil and religious liberty. I earnestly trust that with the advantages afforded by Confederation and Responsible Government our popular representatiqes may permanently reform the bad legislation of the past, and by a comprehensive and liberal policy, inaugurate a new era in our political history and insure the prosperity and appiness of all. Mr. Nathan as an Ottawa Candi date. Mr. Nathan, a very young man and quite inexperienced in politics, is turning VIEUXTEMPS BROTHERS. Heaven under Earth to persuade the electors of this district to return bim as their representative to the Ottawa House VOCAL & INSTRUMENTA of Commons ; but for the life of us we cannot discover what claim he has to be returned. He may have a claim to the confidence and support of the electors, but we doubt it. If he has such a claim we really wish some one would make it known to the electors,—and thus effectually silence the objections of those who think that we require men of ripe judgment and more political experience to represent us at Ottawa. We can understood how a require men of the contract derstand how a young man, prompted by personal ambition, may push himself for-ward as a candidate for one of the most important positions in the gift of the people; yet we cannot comprehend how a majority of the electors—the discrimination, sensible portion of the commu-nity—can see sufficient in the mere qualifications,-youth and ambition,- to fit Mr. Nathan to be their representative. Let it be remembered we find no fault with youth as such, nor with political ambition when reasonable; on the contrary we rather take pride in seeing young men ambitious enough to prepare themselves to discharge in the natural course of events their public duties. More, we believe it to be to the interest of the public to encourage them to look forward to taking their share in the responsibilities of the State. But in Mr. Nathan, we don't see the political training, the political experience, the political service rendered to this community that fits him for the Ottawa representative. He carries no weight whatever in politics. He has no object to satisfy except his ambition, no opinions except those of his few friends; and is often "of the opinion of the first-comer and last-goer." Ever since his name has been placed or the registered list of voters, his vote and has been spent against the popular interest. Was it Union of the Colonies,—was it Confederation,—was it reform condidate. influence have been cast, and his money it reform candidates, or was it respotsible Government that he supported No! No!! No!!! Each and all of these measures, so long as they required a ROBERT JONES helping hand, he was their enemy. When these measures succeeded without his help-when the victory was won-he came forward with his money bags, ENAMELLED SAUCEPANS, bribed his way into the victorious camp, and squesked out in a Lilliputian voice: "Victory! Victory! We did it!" Now MASLIN KETTLES. when the great victory of Confederation GALVANIZED BUCKETS, has been won, now when Confederation has become an accomplished fact through JAM JARS, the labor of those who have borne the NURSERY LAMPS, burden and heat of the day, this Mr. TEA & COFFEE POTS, with the laurel of the victor! And what TOILET CANS, is more, he believes that this community SLOP PAILS, -the electors of this Ottawa district are fools enough to be cafoled into electing BUTTER MOULDS & PRINTS. him! Anexagoras doubted the justice of QUOITS, the Athenian gods, when the court of Arcopagus gave to another the manu-script of which he was the author; and LADIES' GARDEN TOOLS, we might well doubt either the justice, CORN MILLS, the common sease, or the sanity of the electors of this Ottawa district if they TABLE MATS, give to Mr. Nathan what belongs to SCONCES, others. If there were not men of position and capacity qualified to become Ottawa members who have labored and WILSON'S BUTCHER KNIVES, deserve to be encouraged by the electors to continue to labor for their good, we might as a last resort accept Mr. Nathan. WILLIAM'S But as long as there is one of that num-ber remaining who is fit to fill the post of representative to Ottawa, so long will SAD IRONS, the attempt to thrust Mr. Nathan into TAILOR'S IRONS, the Ottawa Parliament deserve to be de-nounced as a wicked and senseless attempt on the part of the electors. If Mr. Nathan had labored to carry Confederation, he might have been deserving of WIRE DISH COVERS. the confidence of the Ottawa electors, WHEELBARROWS, but he never did labor for any such thing. Yet he asks Old-time Confederates to vote for him, to gratify his juvenile ambition! Will they do so? We cannot believe that there is one among the number mean enough, after passing through years of toil and abuse to effect Confederation, to throw away their votes on BREAD PLATTERS & KNIVES. Mr. Nathan. The electors in the city CARPENTERS' TOOLS of all kinds, are being hunted up and cajoled into pledging themselves to vote for Mr. Nathan. Now, will any of them tell us on what ground they offer such pledges? It is not Mr. Nathan's great natural ability; for he never will rise above petty mediocrity. A middling good trader was doubtless spoiled when he took to politics. Will anyone vote for him on the ground of long political experience? Impossible; for his actual political experience has been confined to and a one session of a six-by-nine Legislature. For what, then, will the electors vote for him? We repeat that we can't tell for what. Measuring him naturally and politically, we can discover nothing in him except that he has the unblushing wharf street, assurance to put himself forward to take the place of better men. Not capacity enough to lead, not political experience enough to intelligently follow. Yet the electors are to be hambocated by a designing few into pledging themselves to vote for him. Again, take the farming districts. The electors who depend on agriculture are asked to sign requisitions and pledge themselves to elect the very and pledge themselves to elect the very man who last session wished to make Victoria a free port so far as farming produce is concerned; who wished to initiate a policy that would enable the Oregon, Californian, and Washington Territory farmers to supply this market equimalt, and Victoria districts endors a candidate whose policy is to injura-them in order to catch enough votes else-where on which to ride into Ottawa. If they are disposed to vote for their enemies, let them cast away their votes on Mr. Nathan.

Da. Gopal CHUNDER Roy, speaking upor the question of female education in India at a ng in Liverpool a few weeks ago, said the condition of the females of India deserved their sympathy. On this side of the world try, which, it properly directed, would have resulted in a most profitable harvest. A few years ago, female education in India was held as revolting to the feelings of the natives, but Co., received instructions yesterday by telethose pernicious customs which had held knock these customs upon the head, and as a for the Prince Al'red on her arrival at this proof of this he hailed with satisfaction the port. announcement of one of his countrymen leaving ludia for England with his Hindoo wite. The mission had, no doubt, assisted in this; but still, anything connected with missions had been looked upon by his people with suspicion. When in England they found the Education Bill so eagerly contested, it was not to be wondered at that they found religious education was so hotly con-tested in India; but he hoped that the great work of the education of women would go on, and he asked for the support of the English public in carrying out that work among his ountry women in India.

SEAL FISHERIES .- Mearly six hundred thousand seals have been taken into the various ports of Newfoundland the past season, the catch" being valued at $1,800,000. Two vessels alone brought in eighty-two thousand seals. All this wealth has been secured without any very considerable expenditure of time, money, or trouble, and New oundland would naturally be on the high road to prosperity were it not that the more success-ful merchants almost invariably leave the island as soon as their fortunes are made, and go to England or Scotland to enjoy their ice. There are also grave apprehensions with some that the fishery is being overworked, and that unless the enter rise is measurably checked, the seal will suffer ex-

I am glad to be able to tell you that mother is really on the high road, apparently, to perfect cure, although sne has only taken about quarter doses of cundurango in consequence of its scarcity. When we left Washington, in April, her case was absolutely hopeless, her cancer growing fearfully and angrily. Now the tumor is three-fourths gone, and apparently diminishing; pain al-...24 most gone, and every symptom favourable. 4 Since the first fortnight she has only had quarter doses and now she has none. She is more like herself than she has been for years. How it cures or affects the cancer I cannot imagine. I know how incredulous many doctors are about it, and I would be too, if I had not seen its results. It seems to separate from the blood whatever it is that causes cancer, and I don't know what that is any as took around supplies to the Fisguard more than I know why Peruvian bark cures Light yesterday morning. A signal was ague. You can tell your friends, however, hoisted from the Perce Pooks Light for sun fourth day an improvement, and by the ninth away-that is, if it acts with them as with cases I have seen. Scientific Exploration.

[From the S. F. Bulletin.] The party of civil engineers that lately went o Victoria to survey a route for the promised railroad through British Columbia and the Red River country to Canada, is prepared, not only to make a topographical survey, but also to make a geological reconnoissance of the country. Statistics Relating to the Irish

(From the Pail Mail Gazette.) The Irish Cenus Act having provided for an numeration of the population according to religious profession, we extract from the Census Returns lately presented to Parliament the following results of that enumeration:—The total population of Ireland, as we have already stated, amounted on the 3rd of April last to 5,492,759. Of these persons 4,141,933 returned tuemselves, or were re-turned, as Roman Catholics, 467,865 as memhers of the "Church of Ireland," or the Irish Church," and 215,430 as " Protestant Episcopalians;" 503,461 as "Presbyterians," 41,813 as " Methodists," 4,485 as " Indepen dents," 4,643 as "Baptists," 3,834 as "Friends" or "Quakers," 19,035 as of various other Christian persuasions, and 258 as The representatives of what was once the Established Church in Ireland now number altogether 683,295, or 1.45 per cent. less than they did in 1861; corresponding decrease in the Roman Catholic community being 8.06 per cent., of Non-conforming Protestants generally 3.94 per cent., and o lews 34.25 per cent. There was a sligh increase (1.26 per cent. in the miscellaneous "Other Christian Persuasions, group (mong whom the Census Commissioners include "travellers, temporary lodgers, and mendicants (presumed to be Christians)" as to whom the enumerators were unable to obtain the necessary information. Thus we see that 76 per cent. of the whole Irish popuation is Roman Catholic, the Protestants of all shades constituting 23 per cent.-in other words, the latter are to the former as 1 to 31. Of the four provinces; Leinster has a population of 1,235,966, of whom 1,141,401 are Catholics; in Munster there are 1,302,475 Catholics out of a total of 1,390,402; in Connaught, 803.532, out of 845,993; in Uister, 894,525, out of 1,830,398. As to the willingness of the people to give information about their religious profession, the Census commissioners state that " in the instacce of only twenty families have complaints or objections of any description" been made. Upon what principle it is assumed that Englishmen or Scotchmen have a greater objection than Irishmen to declare their religious profession we have never been able to discover, but the Legislature in its wisdom adopted that view, and consequently the Census Returns of Scotland and England give no indication of the strength of the various denominations in Great Br and paid sixpence each to a woman, who gave them a bone ticket in return. One might have imagined that it was a spiritualists seance, but for the fact that the fee for admission was sixpence and not one guinea. Pro-fessor Zendavesta shook bands with one of the females, and warmly inquired after her health. She told him that she was in trouble about her husband—which was false—and he bade her to be of good cheer, and made an appointment to meet her on another day. Subsequently two constables went to fligant's house, and on going into a room on the ground floor found thirty or forty young women scated there. The ladies bagan to scream, and there was a rush for the door; while the police—who seemed to labour under the impression that to attend an astrol-ogical lecture was as illegal an act as that of being present at a cockfight, or in a common gaming house—stopped several of the women, and made them give their names and addresses. The walls of the apartment were covered with pictures of Life and Death, with the "nativities of several Royal and illustrious personages, and of Constance Kent " It is a wonder that the horoscopes of Heliogabalus

Such is the law, and it is impossible to contest the right of the police to invoke the ometimes their skulls. "Three months hard " is indeed a terrible affliction. Whe we reflect upon the amount of swindling an extertion, by false pre ences or by threats, that is going on every day in London—which often passes unpunished, and which, even when detected, frequently goes but slightly whipt to justice—it does seem rather hard that these sorry rogues should have been so fiercely pounced upon and so rigorously treated. The action of the police in the matter has an "uncanny" look. We do not like the system of trapping people into at offence against the law, or employing female spics to go about and tell a pack of falsehoods in order to nersuade a poor variet into committing an illegal act. No doubt Zendavesta and Cicero, Thalaby and Baretta, were all humbugs; but now they are safe on the treadmill, are there no other humbugs left at large? There are a thousand and one. A CHINESE WILL .- A Chinaman died, leav ing his property by his will to his three sons, as follows: To Fum-Hum, his eldest, one-hall thereof; Nu-Pin, his second son, one-third thereof, and to Ding-Bat, his youngest, one ninth thereof. When the property was in-ventoried, it was found to consist of nothing more nor less than 17 elephants; and i puzzled these three heirs to decide how to divide the property according to the terms of the will, without chopping up the 17 ele-phants, and thereby applied to a wise neighbor, Sum-Punk, for advice. Sum-Punk had an elephant of his own. He drove it into the yard with the 17, and said: " Now we shall suppose that your father left these 18 ele phants. Fum-Hum, take your balf and depart." So Fum-Hum took nine elephant and went his way. "Now, Nu-Pin," said the wise mau, "take your third and git." So Nu-Pin took six elephants and traveled. "Now, Ding-Bat," said the wise man, "take your ninth and begone." So Ding-Bat took two elephants and absquatulated. Then Sum-Punk tock his own elephant and drove home again. Query: Was the property divided according to the terms of the will?

The total cost for the construction of this canal having been caretully calculated, has been set down at $106,-000,000, and making an allowance of $25,000, 000 for contingencies, the entire sum would be about one hundred and thirty millions of dollars. The length of time required to contruct the canal is es imated to be about twelve years. This, in brief, is the route apon which Commander Selfridge bases his hopes of success, and considers that the expedition has achieved a triumph by its discovery.

A Recalcitrant Juror.

[Prom the Golden Age.] A man in Philadelphia has found out that keeping up the old orthodox preudice against color is an expensive luxury. This individual retused the other day to serve on a jury because a negr was on it. Whereupon Judge Ludlow applied to him the eloquent ergument of $200, and then topped off the business with these consoling words: "I am sorry to see such an exhibition in a court of Justice. While it is painful for me to inflict a punishment upon you, it is ieces-ary to teach you where you are and what duty you owe. I shall be compelled to imprison you until the fine i paid. You must understand, sir, that the law of the land has made the colored man your equal in the jury box; and while you may not be pleased with it, you must obey the law. I shall order von into custody until you pay your fine; and I shall also impose an additional ine $200 every time you refuse to erve." That speech strikes us as nearly perfect blending of the law and the gospel.
